LATEST BY THE MAILS.

The Southern Relief Fair--Robberies in New York--Applicants for Pardon--The Test Oath--A Bitter Diatribe Against the Rebels, etc.

Our Northern exchanges, received last night, contain the following items of interest:

THE GREAT FAIR.

The Sun, of Wednesday, says:

There seems to be no abatement whatever in the excitement attending the Southern Relief Fair. Yesterday morning it was found necessary to replenish the stock on most of the tables, the sales of the previous day and evening having in numerous cases caused them to have rather an empty appearance. The crowd still continued yesterday; and last evening the pressure was exceedingly great.

ROBBERIES IN NEW YORK.

The United States bonded warehouse, on Greenwich street, is reported to have been robbed on Saturday night of silks to the value of $10,000, the property of A. T. Stewart.

One of the clerks of the Bank of America was robbed to-day at the entrance of the subtreasury of over $5,000 in gold certificates.—Three unknown ruffians attempted to rob the bookkeeper of the firm of Roach & Co., last night, on Rivington street, of $120.

APPLICATION FOR PARDON.

A Washington telegram says:

It has been reliably ascertained that applications have been made, and are now pending, for pardon by eighty-six ex-members of the Confederate Congress and one hundred and thirty-two ex-graduates of West Point, but who served in the Confederate army; one hundred and twenty-seven Confederate Generals, including Bragg, Longstreet, Beauregard, and several of the Lees; also thirty-two prominent ex-Confederate officers and one hundred and sixteen ex-United States naval officers who held positions in the Confederate service.

THE TEST OATH

The New York Evening Post hopes that Congress will refuse to modify the test oath, on the ground that there are loyal men enough in the South to hold all the offices in the gift of the National Government, who have no chance to be elected to local offices, and whose claims ought to be considered. The Post also says:

"The loyalists of the South need to have their position strengthened with the mass of the people there, and to appoint them to Federal office is to do just that. It will show the Southern people that the Government has not forgotten those who were faithful to it; it will invest the small loyal element in the Southern States with all the importance of the General Government; it will give confidence to thousands who now only silently maintain their opinions, to also assert them. Certainly the powerful patronage of the General Government can never be used for a more beneficent or important purpose than this."

A BITTER BLACK REPUBLICAN.

D. R. Ashley, a Representative from Nevada, in a letter from Washington to a gentleman at Gold Hill gives his view of the situation.—It is terribly bitter on the "rebels":

The reconstruction matter absorbs the whole time of the House now, and nothing else will be listened to. There is immense talking and efforts to reinstate the Rebels with all their old advantages, just as it they never murdered, starved, conspired, betrayed, and are honest now, which they are not. Failing to take Washington with force, they now seek to to reduce it by sophistry, lying, deceit and bribery. Can it be possible that "our President" feels flattered by the adulation of the aristocrats who formerly spurned him? No matter what is reported in print, the real truth is, the course of the amnestied and pardoned Rebels is damnable, and they are malignant and traitorous as ever.

MUSTERING OUT NEGRO TROOPS.

Louisville, April 9.—Under an order from General Thomas that all colored troops in Kentucky are to be disbanded, the 12th Heavy Artillery and 119 the Colored Infantry have been mustered out of the service. Col. Henry Howard, of the quartermaster's department, was thrown from a burgy to-night, and had his collar bone broken.

THE CONFEDERATE VICE PRESIDENT.

Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, is now in Washington, as oddly polite as ever. He complacently denies that there can be such a thing as "citizens of the United States," and insists upon the inferiority of the negro and the necessity of keeping him in a subordinate position. Those who have conversed with Mr. Stephens say that he looks upon the condition of public affairs simply as a broil between politicians, and does not express the slightest sympathy with the moral or benevolent view of the question.

POVERTY IN ALABAMA.

Judge Wythe, a prominent and highly respected citizen of Gunterville, Alabama, represents the condition of his section as pitiable in the extreme. Three cases of actual starvation have occurred, and hundreds must perish if relief is not speedily offered. The probate judge of Marshall county, W. T. May, makes a statement even more startling. He asserts that the number of helpless and indigent people in the county is not less than two thousand one hundred and eighty—women, children and infirm men. Not twenty persons in the whole county have the means more than adequate to their wants.

Two young men commenced the sail making business in Philadelphia. They bought a lot of duck from Girard on credit, and a friend had engaged to endorse for them. Each caught a roll and was carrying it off, when Girard remarked:

"Had you not better get a dray?

"No; it is not far, and we can carry it ourselves."

"Tell your friend he needn't indorse your te, I'll take it without."

For Daily, per year,	$10 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

THE space occupied in our columns, to-day, by the correspondence relative to Taxes, under the late Revenue Act, crowds out much other matter. We presume, however, that we could publish nothing of more interest to our readers.

The Gee Trial.

The Standard having stopped the publication of the proceedings in this case,—doubtless, on account of the expense involved,—and the evidence of the prosecution having been laid before the public, we shall, at the request of the friends of the accused, and as a matter of justice to him, give regular reports, hereafter, of the testimony for the defence. We shall accordingly give, in our next, the proceedings on yesterday, when important evidence in behalf of Maj. Gee was introduced.

Methodist General Conference.

The proceedings of this body, now in session in New Orleans, are of such interest not only to members of the M. E. Church, South, but to Southern readers every where, we shall give such compilations of its proceedings as come to us through the daily press. We condense, to-day, the special correspondence of the Richmond Enquirer and Sentinel.

About one hundred and fifty delegates are present from the several Southern Conferences. Bishops Andrews, Early, Paine and Kavanaugh are present and preside alternately. Bishop Soule is at his home in Tennessee too aged and infirm to be present. Bishop Pierce is detained at home on account of the illness of his father. The most of the first three days was occupied in preliminary arrangements, appointment of committees, reception of memorials, &c.

On the second day, a memorial from the Church at Tuskegee, Ala., was received, proposing the following changes in the economy and practice of the Church:

1. A Bishop for each Annual Conference. 2. Indefinite extension of the pastoral term. 3. Lay representation in the Annual and General Conferences. 4. Removal of all statutory regulations as to salary of preachers. 5. The abolition of probationary system. 7. Limitation of certificates of membership, declaring within what period of time this shall be held as valid. 8. Placing class meetings on the ground of privilege, not regarding attendance on them as a test of membership. 9. The establishment of family sittings in our churches.

A proposition was made to refer the memorial to a special Committee on changes in economy, which sprung an animated discussion, in which, the reporter says, the lines between "Radicals and Conservatives" were pretty closely defined. Pending the discussion, Rev. Dr. Deems moved that the memorial and propositions for changes be referred to the Committee of the whole on the state of the Church, which motion was pending when the Conference adjourned.

On the third day, the delegation from the Baltimore Conference appearing, that body, by formal resolution, was received into the fellowship of the M. E. Church, South. They were greeted with much cordiality, and several interesting speeches were made.

The address of the General Superintendents, a very interesting and important document, was presented and read, and its subjects referred to appropriate Committees.

Rev. Dr. Palmer, of the Presbyterian Church, was introduced by the Bishop, and cordially welcomed, who responded in a warm and appreciative address.

An interesting letter from Dr. McFerrin was read, detailing the views of Bishop Soule on the proposed changes in the Methodist economy. The venerable Bishop's views of the itinerancy are the same as embodied in his preface, written years ago, to the letters of Rev. William Beauchamp. He said emphatically, "The Church must preserve her grand itinerant system inviolate." He is opposed to a Bishop for every Conference, he prefers Wesleyan Episcopal Methodist Church for the name, he does not object to a guarded system of lay representation, and is opposed to any interference with the efficiency of the itinerancy, in extending the pastorate.

Cholera in Richmond.

A few days since, the Richmohd papers announced the death of one of the most estimable and accomplished young ladies of that City, who, it is stated on high medical authority, fell a victim to the Asiatic Cholera.

It is, we learn, the observation of physicians, generally, that there is, the present spring, a general choleratic tendency. There can be no doubt but that the fearful epidemic has reached the North American coast, and that it is on its onward and mysterious march. It may not visit places so far in the interior as our City, but "fore-warned is to be fore-armed," and the most stringent sanitary regulations should be instituted and kept up. A visitation from the Cholera, super-added to the desolations of war and the general distress and affliction of our people, would be "more than we can bear."

It costs but little of time, trouble or money for each house-holder to cleanse and purify his premises, especially when he can rely in so doing upon the assistance of the city authorities. Exemption from this dire scourge is purchased at a cheap rate, when it requires only prudence in eating and drinking, cleanliness of person and the removal of filth and rubbish from our premises.

Important Correspondence in Relation to State Revenue.

By the politeness of the Public Treasurer we are permitted to publish the following correspondence:

PLYMOUTH, N. C., April 2, 1866.

KEMP P. BATTLE, Esq.,
Public Treasurer, Raleigh N. C.

Having been selected as one of the tax list takers, for Washington County, I propose to submit some few questions under the Revenue Law for your decision, upon which doubts may arise, and which are not sufficiently clear, either from the law itself or your circular.

SECTION 2.

1st. A person liable to pay poll tax rents a farm for a year and lives on it, on the 1st of April; who is to give him in and pay his poll tax?

2d. If the renter of the farm hires one or more persons, liable to pay poll tax, who also live on the farm the 1st of April, who is to give him or them in and pay his or their poll tax?

3d. If a merchant, or other person, rents a house and lot in town for a year, and resides on it the 1st of April, who is to give him in and pay his poll tax?

4th. A merchant lives on rented premises, and employs clerks and servants who reside on the same property, on the first of April; who gives them in and pays their poll tax?

5th. A. is the owner and keeper of a hotel; B. and C. board with him on the 1st day of April; who gives B. and C. in and pays their poll tax?

6th. A. lives on B's land and works with C., who gives A. in and pays his poll tax?

In all these cases, you will see the landlord has no means of retaining for the taxes, as allowed by section 2d., and it may be that all of the persons referred to have taxable property to be given in in their own name.

2d. Do the provisions of sections 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 12 go back twelve months from the 1st of April, 1866, except with reference to those subjects on which taxes have actually been paid, under the Revenue Ordinance of the Convention?

3d. Are the subjects taxed by schedule 6 also taxed by section 8th?

4th. Section 8th. In estimating income, is it to be estimated for 12 months preceding the 1st of April, 1866, exclusive of income on those subjects on which taxes have been actually paid, under the Revenue Ordinance of the Convention?

5th. Section 8th. In estimating income, does the word "taxes," to be deducted, include all taxes paid, federal, town, county, &c., as well as State taxes.

I am under the impression that you have to furnish blanks on which to take the lists of taxable property; if so, please forward them early, together with your reply to these enquiries, as the time is near at hand when the list has to be taken.

I am, sir, very respectfully,
CHARLES LATHAM.

REPLY OF PUBLIC TREASURER.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT OF N. C., }
April 13, 1866. }

Col. Charles Latham:

DEAR SIR:—Your first series of questions relates to the proper construction of that portion of the proviso of sec. 2, schedule A, Rev. act, requiring employers and owners of land in certain cases to pay the poll tax of their employees and tenants. The proviso, heretotore applied to free negroes, has been a long time on our statute books. The object of the lawmakers was to collect poll tax from those usually having no property and returned as insolvents. Hence employers are made liable for the poll tax of their employees and are allowed to save themselves by retaining the tax out of the wages due by them. And persons permitting men subject to poll tax to live on their land must pay such tax, it being supposed that the land owner will be able to make such terms with his occupant as will, without loss to himself, secure the State.

I do not understand, however, that landlords are liable for their tenants holding definite leases. The words of the act, "living on his land or in his house, by consent of the owner," are not, I think, appropriate to cases of leases for a term. Indeed, the owner of a lease is often by his neighbors called the "owner of the land," although not entitled to the fee simple. In the common language of the country, those spoken of as "living on the land" of another, are mere occupants, at the will of the owner, subject at any time to be removed. The expression is never used of those holding valuable leases.

Adopting this construction, it is not difficult to answer your questions on this point.

SECTION 2.

1st. and 2nd. B. rents a farm for a year and lives on it, on the 1st of April. He must list himself and his employees and servants liable to poll tax, and see the tax paid.

3rd. and 4th. A merchant rents a house and lot in town for a year; he pays the poll tax of himself, his clerks and servants.

5th. A hotel keeper is bound, by the law of his profession, to entertain all persons demeaning themselves properly, whom he can accommodate. I do not think it within the spirit of the law to hold him responsible for the tax of those happening to board with him on the 1st. of April. The law, as I mentioned above, was aimed at a different class of cases.

6th. A lives on B's land, and works for C. Both B and C are liable, but it will generally be best to hold C, as he can retain the tax from wages of A.

Your other questions relate to the construction of other sections, schedule A.

2nd. The provisions of section 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 12 apply and operate during the year preceding the 1st. April 1866, excepting those subjects on which taxes have already been paid under the Revenue Ordinance of the Convention. See sec. 5. sched. C.

3rd. The income tax under section 8 is in addition to all other taxes imposed in the Revenue act, except when laid on gross receipts, and dividend, and profits. The tax of sec. 8 is in addition to that of sec. 6, which is on notes, bonds &c. If A has an income of $1000 and has the money on hand the 1st. April he must pay $1 on the same.

4th. Section 8 is expressly on nett income "during the year preceding the 1st April in each and every year;" therefore from April 1, '65 to April 1, '66.

5th. The taxes to be deducted from the income include Federal, State, County and town taxes. All except the income tax itself.

Section 75 of the act for collecting Revenue makes it the duty of the Comptroller to furnish forms of tax-lists. I am informed that these blanks have all been forwarded.

I thank you for calling my attention to the foregoing points and hope you will communicate to me any other difficulties which may arise in carrying out your duties, under the Revenue law. Very respectfully,

KEMP P BATTLE,
Public Treasurer.

In addition to the questions propounded in the letter of Col. Latham, many letters have been addressed to me concerning the construction of the Revenue acts and my answers have been in substance as follows:

1st. The constitution provides that "all free males over the age of twenty-one years and under forty-five years, and all slaves over the age of twelve and under the age of fifty years, shall be subject to capitation tax." There are now no slaves in the State, and hence all males between the ages of twenty-one and forty-five, whether white, free negroes or freedmen, unless exempted for bodily infirmity, are subject to poll tax.

2d. Under section 6, schedule A, bonds and other securities not due are not required to be listed. Bonds of the State issued prior to 23d February, 1861, are not taxed.

3rd. Section 32, schedule B, has been, by mistake, made a separate section, instead of a part of section 30, as was intended. Distillers of spirituous liquors from grain are required to obtain license from the County Court, or seven justices, at the end of 30 days from March 12th, 1866. They pay nothing for this license, which is given by the court or seven justices (who ought to act together as a body) and not by the Sheriff. I find no authority for the Sheriff to examine the distillers on oath as to the number of gallons distilled by them, but will ask the Convention to supply this defect.

4th. Section 16 imposes a tax of "$50 for one year" on retailers of liquors, &c. I think this means they are to pay $50 for the year their license continues as ordered by the County Court. This tax is independent of the Convention tax on retailers, which was a special tax for the year 1865.

5th. Sections 79, 80, and 82 of the act for collecting revenue settles the time when licenses granted by Sheriffs to merchants &c., expire. As the law stands, merchants, &c., must give in their purchases from July, 1865, to January, 1866. This probably was not intended by the General Assembly, as the Convention tax was levied on the same subjects, and I will call the attention of the Convention to the hardships of its operation, in the hope that body will confine the tax to purchases, &c., since the 1st of January, 1866.

6th. Book sellers are liable to pay on their purchases under sec: 21, sched B. Proviso (3,) sec. 27, only exempts book peddlers from the necessity of proving character and getting license as required of other peddlers.

8th. A person purchasing bank bills, for his own use, is not a broker within the meaning of sec. 8. Sched. B.

If A., a broker in Raleigh, has an agent in Greensboro, who appoints B. in Winston, the exclusive duty of B. being to buy up bank notes for the Greensboro agent, B. is liable to pay tax as the agent of a broker, and B. on learning the provisions of the present revenue law, cannot by ceasing to do business avoid payment of the tax. He has no grounds of complaint because the same law (1858-9, as amended 1860-1) has been in existence since January 1st. 1866, having been restored by the Convention.

9th. Section 29, schedule B. If a farmer distils liquor, the product of his farm, he can sell it by peddling through the country without being taxed as an itinerant. But a distiller who peddles his liquor, not the product of his farm, must pay under the above section.

10th. If a man in Orange distils liquor and sends it to a commission merchant for sale, the distiller does not pay as an itinerant, and the commission merchant, not having purchased the liquor, does not pay under section 21, schedule B, but must list his profits under section 8, schedule A, as "income."

If other questions are presented, hereafter, my answers will be sent to all the sheriffs.

KEMP P. BATTLE,
Public Treasurer.

Mails Out of Joint.

For some time, for the accommodation of the public, packages containing letters and papers have been left by Route Agents and Mail Carriers at the old offices where there was no legally authorized Post Master, to be distributed by persons who volunteered their services.—This arrangement has been stopped and the requisitions of the law are enforced. No mail matter of any kind will hereafter be delivered, except at such Post Offices as are supplied by legally appointed Post Masters.

This arrangement, we hope, will make our people bestir themselves to urge some old man, or single lady, or a widow, who will consent, to take the oath as Post Master, and thus relieve the wants of the community. In the neighborhood of every former Post Office, surely some one can be found who can take the oath and consent to act as Post Master.

Let recommendations for the appointment of such persons, naming them, be forthwith gotten up all over the State, and let the petition or recommendation to the Post Master General of the United States be forwarded to this city, addressed to M. A. Jobe, Special Mail Agent, Raleigh, N. C. In this way every Post Office in the State can be supplied with Post Masters.

NEW CARS.—The Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company have just received two fine new passenger coaches from Wilmington, Delaware. They are magnificent in construction and finish, and will add very much to the comfort of travelers.—Wil. Dispatch.

Why could not these cars have been constructed, as well and as cheaply, in Wilmington, N. C. as in Wilmington, Del.? What prospect is there for the recuperation of the South, if we continue, as formerly, to buy everything at the North that we need, when, by a little enterprise and industry, we can do as well at home? We are friends of reciprocity and commercial intercourse between all the States, but we do not see the wisdom of the policy of furnishing the raw material to Northern manufacturers to be manufactured for us, in those cases where it can be done as well and as cheaply here as elsewhere. We are gratified to learn that our Rail Roads are brushing up and affording accommodations to the public, but it would gratify us more to know that these things were done by the skill and enterprise of our own mechanics.

THE SEVENTY-TWO Constitutional amendments which have been introduced into Congress by the Radicals, having failed to produce harmony and concord, their advocates, it is said, have determined to arrange "a constitutional amendment, which will be acceptable to every body." This is a very poor American attempt to imitate a distinguished English statesman, Mr. Tittlebat Titmouse. That gentleman solemnly promised that, if elected to Parliament, he would introduce a bill for giving everybody everything!

GENERAL NEWS.

The Vicksburg Herald says: The "trade in human flesh" here is very brisk just now. The colored regiments are being mustered out, and any quantity of hands can be purchased from their late officers, at prices varying from five to twenty-five dollars, according to quality. They are not encouraged, as they should be, to seek good homes, but they are used to put money in the purses of men who make loud professions as their "only" friends. The main desire appears to be to get the highest price per head, by speculating upon the demand of our planters for labor. Let the men who have charged the Southern people with being the enemies of the black race, put this in their pipes and smoke it.

TORONTO, April 11.—The examination of the Fenians arrested at Cornwall begins to-day.—The Globe this morning states that there is no longer any doubt that O'Mahoney is concentrating a force near the New Brunswick frontier. It says that this is directly in violation of the neutrality laws of the United States, and the Washington authorities must speedily take action upon the subject. Marching armed men toward the frontier is an act of war, which the American Government must suppress, if they intend to do their duty towards their neighbors.

Head Centre Stephens is expected to arrive at New York by the Havre steamer, which was due there yesterday. Great preparations are making by the O'Mahoney wing of the Fenians, for his reception.

Among the latest donations to the Southern Relief Fair at Baltimore is a beautifully embroidered cushion, valued at thirty dollars, presented by a daughter of General Lee.

General Grant has asked the unconditional release of Major Dick McCann, of Tennessee, as the Secretary of War testifies by letter, because he, like Col. Bradly T. Johnson, is entitled to the benefit of his parole.

Fifteen pardons were granted by the President, on Wednesday, the parties coming under the $20,000 clause. Thirteen of the parties are residents of Louisiana, one of Alabama, and one of South Carolina.

Some fair admirer of Senator McDougall sent to that gentlemen's desk to-day a beautiful evergreen basket, filled with rare flowers. On it was the inscription: "From a devotee of the God of Light and Beauty." It was intended as an acknowledgment of the eloquent remarks made by Mr. McD. in answer to the impious speech made by Mr. Wade.

TOO POOR TO BE GOVERNOR.—Governor Hamilton, of Texas, declines to be a candidate for the office he now fills by military appointment. His main reason is that he is poor and without a home, and cannot afford to spare four years of his life in official duties, while his family are in urgent need of his labor.

Princess Matilde's last reception proved to be a concert of a peculiar kind. Prince Metternich performed on the piano; the Princess, his wife, beat the drum; and her Imperial Highness played the triangle.

Thad. Stevens, too, is on the wane. Fact is, pickles flavored with vitriol may be tasted once in a while, but they won't do for a steady diet. —Marietta Times.

A negro insulted a lady at a spring, near Nashville, a few days ago. Her husband went out and blew the negro's brains out. Served him right.

As General Banks has never submitted a report of the battle of Cedar Mountain, Virginia, and the seige of Port Hudson, the Secretary of War has called upon him for said reports, which the General is engaged in preparing.

In Tennessee, forty-three newspapers are now published, with a prospect of having the number increased to fifty in a few months. Eighteen of the number are dailies, and twenty-five weeklies. Nashville supports seven and Memphis nine dailies.

Chirac, an eminent French physician, was famed for his skill in the prognosis of diseases. It is related of him that, when in a state of delirium, on his death-bed, he felt his own pulse, imagining it to be that of a patient, and exclaimed, "I have been called too late; the patient has been blooded, and he ought to have been purged; he is a dead man!" and in a few minutes he expired.

A public meeting was held at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, in New York, on Monday evening last, at which Chief Justice Chase presided. In the course of his remarks, Chief Justice Chase alluded to the passage of the Civil Rights bill, and claimed that the next step would be to give the ballot to the emancipated slaves.

SINGULAR EXPRESSION OF THE LONDON TIMES.—The Fenian invasion of Canada, and the consequences to which it may lead, are referred to, and the London Times expresses the hope that the United States will compensate England for the passive attitude she has hitherto assumed on the Fenian question.

It is said that the visit of the President to General Grant's reception was the first occasion of a presidential appearance at a levee of a subordinate.

THE POPULATION OF NEW ORLEANS.—The population of New Orleans is said to be sixty thousand more than it was previous to the war. We presume, however, that estimate includes the negroes, seventy-five thousand of whom are now congregated there.

An Omaha paper contains the following advertisement:

"Mrs. G. H. Collins wants a first-rate, tiptop, No. 1. girl, to do housework—must thoroughly understand cooking, washing, and ironing.—Wages, five dollars per week. All the piano-playing, fine needle-work, visiting, and entertaining company, will be done by the lady of the house."

"Sir, did you ever see a dead duck?" "Yes, an 'Occasional' one."—Prentice.

The spring elections in Indiana show that State to be undoubtedly Democratic.

Mr. Sumner presented in the Senate a memorial signed by Wm. Gilmore Simms, and other South Carolina authors, asking the passage of an international copyright law.

At a "colored folks" convention in Washington, Monday night, the white reporter of the Star was ejected, and the colored reporter of the Chronicle was specially invited to remain.

ELECTION.—At an election held in this town on Monday last, for Magistrate of Police and Commissioners, the following were elected: Magistrate of Police—L. D. Pender. Commissioners—H. B. Bryan, Willie Walston, H. A. Dowd.—Tarboro' Southerner, 7th.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS—A. R. Raven & Co. have put up the first Soda fountain of the season.

Also, a large lot of fine liquors.

J. J. Litchford, No. 7, Hargett St., has on hand consignments of Hay, Corn, and other articles.

See the several advertisements of B. P. Williamson & Co.

THE LADIES' TABLEAUX, on Thursday night, were a brilliant success, and charmed a large and appreciative attendance of our people.—The scenes were selected with a refined taste, and the various characters represented with delicacy and judgment. The costumes arranged for the occasion were every way appropriate to the role of the actors, and alternately carried one back, in fancy, to the golden days of Elizabethan splendor or the gorgeous scenes of Oriental magnificence. Where all sustained their parts so admirably, it would be invidious to notice any particular representation. We can only say that the accomplished lady managers, who bestowed so much time and labor in getting up the entertainment, have reason to be proud of their success. They have their reward, not only in the universal delight of the audience, but,—what is far better,—in the consciousness that they have contributed to one of the holiest of charities.

As, from various causes, numbers of our citizens were unable to attend on Thursday evening, we respectfully suggest a repetition of the exhibition at an early day.

MADAME POZZONI.—We are requested to state that this celebrated Prima Donna will give one of her attractive concerts in this City on Monday. Our citizens will remember the favorable impression which her rare vocalization made during a former visit. The place of Concert, and other particulars, will be given in due time.

TO LIVERPOOL DIRECT.—Needham Price, Esq., one of our largest farmers, will ship fifty bales of Cotton direct to Liverpool, on steamship Ephesus, (advertised in our columns,) from Norfolk, Va. The freight, commissions and other charges on the lot, are about three hundred dollars in favor of Liverpool as against New York.

WESTERN R. R. CO.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Western Railroad Company, held at Fayetteville, on the 4th instant, the following gentlemen were elected officers:

H. L. Myrover, President. J. Williams, E. J. Lilly, A. A. McKethan, T. S. Lutterloh, R. M. Orrell, Arch'd McLean, David McNeill, E. L. Pemberton, J. C. Poe, Directors. By an order of the stockholders, the offices of Secretary and Treasurer were combined in one person.

THE Orient, Captain Dodd, a small steamer, makes regular weekly trips to and from Norfolk; by way of Chesapeake and Albemarle Canal, touching at Edenton, Plymouth and Williamston. She takes passengers and freight.

THE remains of Captain Robert Marsh, of Norfolk, who died in this city during the war, have been removed to the Norfolk Cemetery.

Proceedings of Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—SENATE.—A resolution was passed prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors in the Capitol building.

House bill in relation to the habeas corpus was then taken up.

HOUSE.—The House passed the bill to reimburse the State of Missouri for expenses incurred in calling out the militia to repel invasion during the late war.

The House passed a bill extending the provisions of an act granting lands to the several States and Territories, to aid in the establishment of Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges. A clause of the bill excepting the States unrepresented in Congress from the benefits of the bill provoked a long debate. The bill finally passed with the clause remaining—yeas 96, nays 33.

Hon. A. H. Stephens Before the Reconstruction Committee—Effect of the Civil Rights Bill—Negroes in the Senate Gallery.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Hon. Alexander H. Stevens appeared to-day as a witness before the Reconstruction Committee, and will conclude his testimony to-morrow as to the condition and disposition of the people of the South. It is said that he was very deliberate and careful in his replies to the questions asked, and that his testimony is of an interesting character. Mr. Stevens will this week return to Georgia.

Heretofore seats were designated for colored persons in the Senate Galleries, but since the passage of the Civil Rights bill, the doorkeepers allow them to select seats where they choose.

The ladies of Raleigh will give a series of tableaux for the raising of a fund for the burial of North Carolina's honored dead. God bless them. They have labored often for noble purposes, but never for a nobler one. The record of the sons of North Carolina in the late war, from Bethel to Appomattox, is one unbroken tale of glory.—Petersburg Index.

NOTICE! SAW MILLERS!!

PROPOSALS are invited for the supply of my Lumber Yard, the ensuing three months, with good Heart Pine Lumber.

ARTIFICIAL LIMBS.—It is well known that the late Legislature passed an act, by which all citizens of the State who lost limbs in its service, during the war, are to be supplied with artificial substitutes at its expense. We do not know whether the Governor, in the exercise of the discretion allowed him by the act, has as yet perfected a contract in accordance with its provisions. He will doubtless survey the whole ground, and contrast the claims of all the rival manufacturers before doing so.

It strikes us as every way important, by the way, that the Governor, in arriving at his conclusions in the premises, should summon a council of competent and experienced Surgeons, and avail himself of their judgment in the decision. Unprofessional gentlemen, whatever their intelligence in other matters, are hardly competent to give an opinion upon those involving anatomical and surgical points.

We alluded, a few days since, to the PALMER leg, as introduced to our personal notice by Capt. Morrison, of this State. We expressed our admiration of its seemingly perfect mechanism and wonderful adaptability. We were impressed with the beneficent triumph of science, which has thus provided some compensation for a great affliction, and deprived mutilation of more than half its terrors. We had, of course, heard of the Palmer limbs before, but this was the first opportunity we had had of seeing for ourselves, that, in reality, they were equal to their reputation, as it had reached us. That reputation is not confined to this country, or to Europe, but is literally world wide. They have come into direct competition with the best articles that have been produced at home and abroad, and have invariably been awarded the highest place as triumphs of mechanical, surgical and artistic skill.

The testimony of wearers of the limbs is necessarily the best evidence of their merit. We accordingly append two certificates from officers of high rank in the U. S. A., and one from Capt. Morrison, to whom we have already referred, and in whose case the use of the leg so impressed us:

BREVOORT HOUSE, New York, January 12, 1865.

SIR: I have great pleasure in bearing testimony to the excellence of the artificial leg you made for me. I have used it long enough to convince me of the superior mechanical construction of the limbs you make.

My intercourse with yourself has impressed me with your unwearied devotion to your patients, and the rare scientific accomplishments you bring to their relief.

In placing this note at your disposal, I only perform a duty to my comrades who may, by the fortune of war, have occasion for your services. I remain, dear sir, very respectfully,

D. E. SICKLES,
Major-General.

B. FRANK PALMER, LL.D.

BOSTON, MASS., Jan. 6, 1865.

DEAR SIR: I have now used the Palmer Leg (full length) for more than two years. During most of that time I have been on active duty in the field. It has stood the severe test of campaigning, exposure to all weathers, and constant use in the saddle, admirably; not better than I had hoped, but far better than I expected. I have never been kept off duty an hour by any fault in its mechanism. I willingly bear testimony to its merits, and express my satisfaction with the result of the test to which I have subjected it. (It is not bullet-proof—few legs are!) I am, sir, very respectfully,

W. F. BARTLETT,
Brigadier-General.

B. FRANK PALMER, LL.D.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 4, 1866.

DR. B. FRANK PALMER—Dear Sir: It affords me much pleasure to acknowledge the great success of your professional treatment in my case, which is one of the most difficult kind to treat,—my foot being amputated by the Chopart method. The mechanism is complete in all respects—light, comfortable and strong, and I walk perfectly. I am convinced, after careful examination of a great number of patents, that the Palmer Limbs are superior to all others, and strongly recommend the adoption of them by my mutilated comrades of the South, feeling assured that no other manufacturer can produce a limb so perfectly. Very respectfully,

J. G. MORRISON,
A. D. C. to the late Genl. T. J. Jackson.

The following certificate exhibits the durability of the Palmer Limb,—an important item, in these days of financial depression:

No. 100 EAST THIRD STREET,
CINCINNATI, OHIO, January 1, 1865.

DR. B. F. PALMER.

DEAR SIR: Your manufacture of artificial legs has been fully tested by me during a period of more than sixteen consecutive years. I take pleasure in testifying, for the benefit of others, that your manufacture is very durable, simple, and excellent. The simplicity of your invention is its greatest recommendation, and I have not the talent to point out any change in it.

Very truly yours,

N. C. MACRAE,
Major U. S. A.

OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT
U. S. A., General Hospital,
Cincinnati, Ohio, March 15, 1866.

Having acted as Medical Director during three years of the war, it became my duty to give orders for artificial limbs to mutilated soldiers, and as Dr. B. F. Palmer's limbs were generally preferred, a large majority of the orders were given on him to furnish the necessary limbs. So far as my knowledge extends, the limbs furnished by Dr. Palmer have given most satisfaction, and this also is the testimony of Hospital Stewards and non-commissioned officers on duty at the various Hospitals in my charge, who have had opportunities of seeing the men after they had received and used the limbs furnished to them; and I have, therefore, no hesitation in saying that in my opinion they are preferable to all others.

W. S. KING,
Brv't Col. and Surgeon U. S. A.

Dr. Palmer, the inventor, is President of the American Artificial Limb Co., an association of very large capital and long standing, whose reliability is unsurpassed by that of any corporation in the country. On this account, they will be able, we are sure, to propose such arrangements and terms to the State, as will be, in all respects, advantageous, if, upon a full investigation of the whole matter by the Governor, he shall see fit to negotiate with them. From their elevated stand-point, indeed, they will probably be able to offer better terms, in all important particulars, than any other manufacturers.

We shall be glad to see those of our unfortunate fellow citizens, who have suffered the loss of limbs, speedily supplied,—and supplied with the Palmer substitute. We do not hesitate to express our belief of its superiority. By its use, they can be rendered again useful to themselves and the community.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayers Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is needless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

I Feel I'm Growing Auld, Gude Wife.

I feel I'm growing auld, gude-wife—
I feel I'm growing auld;
My steps are frail, my een are bleared,
My pow is unco bauld—
I've seen the snows of fourscore years
O'er hill and meadow fa',
And Minnie, were it no for you
I'd gladly slip awa'.

I feel I'm growing auld, gude-wife—
I feel I'm growing auld;
Fra youthtime age I've kept it warm
The love that ne'er turned cauld,
I canna bear the dreary thocht
That we mana sundered be,
There's naething binds my puir old heart
To earth, gude-wife, but thee.

I feel I'm growing auld, gude-wife—
I feel I'm growing auld;
Life seems to me a wintry waste,
The very sun feels cauld;
Of worldly friends ye've been to me
Amang them a' the best
Now I'll lay down my weary head,
Gude wife and be at rest.

Description of a Well-Taxed Country.

Sidney Smith's terrible picture of his own well-taxed country will never be forgotten. What was then, and is still, true of England has been made too true of our country, by the wicked policy of sectional parties and by the robberies and plundering which were permitted in the prosecution of the war. Here is the picture:

"Taxes were piled on taxes, until they reached every article which enters into the mouth, or covers the back, or is placed under foot; taxes upon everything which it is pleasant to see, hear, feel, smell or taste; taxes upon warmth, light, and locomotion; taxes on everything on earth and in the waters under the earth; on everything that comes from abroad or is grown at home; taxes on the raw material; taxes on fresh value that is added to it by the industry of man; taxes on the source which pamper's man's appetite, and the drug which restores him to health; on the ermine which decorates the judge, and the rope which hangs the criminal; on the poor man's salt and rich man's spice; on the brass nails of the coffin and the ribbons of the bride. At bed or board, couchant or levant, we must pay.

The school boy whips his taxed top; the beardless youth manages his taxed horse with a taxed bridle, on a taxed road; and the dying Englishman, pouring his medicine which has paid seven per cent., into a spoon that has paid fifteen per cent., flings himself back upon the chintz bed which has paid twenty-two per cent., makes his will on an eight pound stamp, and expires in the arms of an apothecary, who has paid a license of a hundred pounds for the privilege of putting him to death. His whole property is then immediately taxed from two to ten per cent. Besides the probate, large fees are demanded for burying him in the chancel; his virtues are handed down to prosterity on taxed marble; and he is then gathered to his fathers, to be taxed no more."

Taking the Census.

The following conversation occurred between a deputy marshal, engaged in taking the census, and a woman at whose house he called.

"What is your husband's name?"

"Don't you know Joe? I thought everybody knew Joe. He's a lazy loafer—that's what he is."

"You don't feel remarkably amiable this morning. What seems to be the matter?"

"Why, you see, the rain just drove me from picking huckelberries, and I was mad. If Joe had been here when I come home, wouldn't he have caught it?"

"What's his occupation?"

"Well, if that ain't rich. Who ever heard before of his having any occupation. If ever he had any, it left him when he got married, for he has'nt done anything since; he's too lazy to do anything. Here, Tom, you go to the door and see if your father is doing anything; and if he is, we will have it put right down in the census book, and call it his occupation.

(Tom reported that his father warn't doin nothin,) and the woman said:

"You may as well put it down loafer."

"From your account of him, I think that will represent his business as correctly as anything, so I will put it down loafer."

"If I ever find out of his doing anything, I will let you know."

"Have you had any deaths in your family within the year?

"You may put my husband down as dead, he may as well be dead as alive, for he is too lazy to do anybody any good. If he had the ague, he would be too lazy to shake. I expect he will die in a fit one of these days, for he is too lazy to have his blood circulate. You may as well put him down and be done with it. I wish he was."

STORIES ABOUT WITNESSES.—In a case recently tried in the Court of Queen's Bench, the plaintiff being a merchant's widow, and the defendants two medical men who had treated her for delirium tremens, and put her under restraint as a lunatic, witnesses were called on the part of the plaintiff to prove that she was not addicted to drinking. One of them, a Mr. Tate, a surgeon, of Sunderland, who had been the lady's medical adviser, was asked whether, during the time he attended her, she seemed like a person addicted to excessive drinking. "No," replied Mr. Tate, "she never presented the appearance even of a person who drank moderately." A laundress, more skilled in linen than in language, was also called to prove the habitual sobriety of the lady; and being asked by Mr. Huddleston, "was she abstemious"? naively replied, "I never saw her so." The last witness called by Mr. Montagu Chambers, the leading counsel on the part of the plaintiff, was Dr. Tunstal, who closed his evidence by describing a case of delirium tremens treated by him, in which the patient recovered in a single night. "It was," said the witness, "a case of gradual drinking—sipping all day, from morning till night." The words were scarcely uttered than Mr. Chambers, who had examined the witness, turning to the bench, said, amidst roars of irrepressible laughter, "My lord, that is my case." —Beeton's Book of Wit.

"My dear," said Mrs. Dogberry to her daughter, "you should not hold your dress so very high in crossing the street." "Then, Ma," replied the maiden, "how shall I ever show the beauty of my flounced pantalets, that I have almost ruined my eyesight to manufacture? I'm sure I don't care if the beaux do look at me." Mrs. Dogberry spoke of "the sin of vanity and the beauty of decorum," and walked to her chamber.

RALEIGH, 1866.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8 819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15. 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527 805 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,234 33.

In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

CIRCULAR.

The Co-partnership of G. W. DEEMS & C. F. DEEMS has been dissolved, by mutual consent, and the business of manufacturing the Southern has gone into the hands of G. W. DEEMS, the discoverer, who has removed to Baltimore, Md., where he can have access to the purest and best Medicines, on the most favorable terms. He will always keep on hand a large supply, and will sell to his customers, wholesale and retail, at the shortest notice.

Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been circulated so extensively, they need no recommendation—their merits are so well known by their results.

We thank our customers for the liberal patronage given us heretofore, and hope they will continue to favor us by sending their orders to G. W. DEEMS, No 28 South Calhoun Street, Baltimore, Md., where they will be promptly attended to, the cash accompanying the orders. Price 30 cts. per box; $2.50 per dozen, and a liberal discount to dealers.

A Remarkable Case.

DISEASE IN WHICH THE LUNGS AND THROAT ARE INVOLVED.—Mrs. Phebe Perkinson, Petersburg, Va., (Aug. 26, 1865,) says: "I hereby certify, that two years ago last June, I was afflicted with a disease commonly called the Breast Complaint, the pain and weakness in the breast continued to increase so that I could not bear my clothes fastened on me for the space of two years. I found great difficulty in breathing; a general debility prevailed over my whole system—so much so, that I could not walk up the steps without drawing myself up by the banister; had a continued hacking cough, which distressed me greatly, four times during my illness had Hemorrhage of the Lungs. All medical treatment failed to afford me relief; it was the opinion of my friends that I must die with the consumption. I was advised to use the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS; after using three boxes, strictly according to directions, I find myself in the enjoyment of perfect health; I have a good appetite, have become as fleshy as I ever was, sleep sound and pleasant, and can perform any duty with as much strength and vigor as I ever did. They certainly have acted like a perfect charm on me."
